

Volunteering in your local community is a rewarding way to meet new people, share your knowledge and gain new skills.

Volunteers are valued for their experience, expertise and willingness to share and assist others.

Volunteering is a major part to many of the Far West Local Health District services and programs.

If you are interested in Volunteering please contact:

Community Engagement Manager
Far West LHD
Darriea Turley AM
t:0429848480
M: 0429848480
E:darriea.turley@health.nsw.gov.au

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN VOLUNTEERING ?

Who can be a volunteer?

Anyone within the Community who is:

- Willing to get involved with local community
- Honest, responsible and reliable person
- Willing to teach and learn new skills
- Participate and interact with community members

You may be interested in volunteering in one of these areas:

- Broken Hill Hospital Kiosk
- Artist in Residence
- Red Cross Tele-cross
- Balranald Hospital Driver Volunteers
- Dementia, Delirium and Palliative Care
- Community Palliative Care
- Tai Chi for Health Leaders
- Emergency Department Patient Family Support Broken Hill
- Fit and Strong Dareton
- Aqua Fitness White Cliffs and Dareton

Are volunteers supported in their role?

Volunteers are valued and supported. You will receive a name badge, equipment, training, reward recognition and most of all an enjoyable volunteering experience.